

NSC BRIEFING

15 July 1954

INDONESIA

I. Ali cabinet appears fairly secure for present.

A. Of two small parties, one has reversed earlier decision to withdraw support. Other still on fence.

1. Even if both out, Ali might survive by relying on Communists.

2. Sukarno wants keep present setup.

B. By reassignment of parliamentary seats, P.N.I., leading government, now has four more than Masjumi, leading opposition.

C. Deteriorating economy not yet political issue.

1. Main sufferers are politically powerless Chinese and Europeans.

2. Opposition reluctant to take over economic mess.

II. Ali's confidence probably factor in timing of apparent decision to ship rubber China. Polish vessel in Djakarta since 1 July.

A. Documents on rubber loaded indicate China destination: shipment believed 6000 tons.

B. Loading halted after 250 tons on board; govt decision possibly not firm.

C. National Party, Communists have long advocated non-observance UN rubber embargo.

SECRET

1. In past, indications Indonesia had trouble making deal with Peiping.
2. Ceylon rubber meets China's strategic needs;
purchase from Indo possibly designed to strain US-Indo relations.

D. Indo view of world alignment
may also be factor in decision:
Ali recently said "balance of power in world seems to be shifting to new position."

E. Ali did not admit shipment to our ambassador, but hoped no application of Battle Act.

1. Said, anyway, US aid too small to be missed.

III. Indo world's largest natural rubber producer.
